JUDGE ADAMS' SPEECH.

He Denounces the White Supremacy Arguments.

The August term of the supreme court convened in the court house here Monday morning at 11 o'clock. His Honor, Judge Spencer B. Adams, arriving on the morning train from the south.

Solicitor Seawell was present representing the state. Mr. Seawell is now the nominee of the populist and republican parties for judge of this district.

His honor's charge to the jury, we will do him the justice to say, was the best (being the only) political speech we ever heard delivered from the bench. We have been reporting court proceedings here for about six years and in that time a number of judges have been here whose political affiliations differed from ours, but we have had no occasion to refer to any of them in uncomplimentary terms. We regret the necessity for doing so now. But when a man clothed with the judicial emblems takes advantage of a position on the bench to abuse and to vilify as good people as there are in the state and to mix his partisan rancor with his instructions of the law, we think it our duty as a faithful chronicler of events, to publish the fact.

The first point of his political speech was to pay his respects to folks who "were going up and down the country abusing people about the way they cast their ballots." This came under the head of "intimidating voters," and was evidently intended for the democratic speakers who are now canvassing the state, as neither of the other political parties have begun their canvass yet.

His second political point was in the nature of a defense of the last Legislature, saying that if it had done nothing else but pass the law in regard to embezzlement by public officers, administrators, executors, etc., which he was then discussing, it would have been worth all it cost to the state.

He reached the climax, however, when he came to discuss fornication and adultery. He said that "nine times out of ten if you will chase down the fellows who are going about trying to stir up race prejudice you will find them sleeping with a negro woman." When we consider that numbers of as good people as there are in the state are "going about stirring up race prejudice," as he would doubtless call it, his statement becomes a most sweeping valedication, and one which cannot be properly characterized in temperate language. And he said this with a kind of a "remember-the-Maine" expression on his countenance which seemed to indicate his regret that there was not a law by which democratic speakers and papers could be stopped from telling the people of the foothold which negro supremacy had obtained under the present administration.

And this was not all. Proceeding to the question of rape, he argued to the jury that it was a lesser offense than seduction, because the only difference was, he said, that one was committed by force and the other by fraud. It required some courage for the former. He illustrated his position by saying he had rather his purse was stolen by a highwayman than by deception. We may not be surprised that assaults upon white women by brutes—the lowest crime in the eyes of the law as well as of men to which it is possible for human depravity to descend—are so alarmingly on the increase when a judge on the bench attempts to minimize its heinousness and argues to a grand jury that it is less a crime than one for which the most extreme penalty is a term in the penitentiary.

We are informed that Judge Adams never practiced law, and that he was clerk of the court of Caswell county when he was called into our "non-partisan judiciary."

His honor received just a few days ago from the republicans of his district a renomination for the position he now holds, and this was, perhaps, his opening campaign speech.—Columbus News.

No Uncommon Thing.

It is no uncommon thing now to hear men who formerly affiliated with the populists, saying that they have had enough of that party; that they see the leaders are simply working for places for themselves, and that hereafter they will vote with the democrats. We heard men talking so on Saturday.—Louisville Times.

IN HARMONIOUS CONVENTION

Guilford County Democrats Met Today.

J. N. WILSON FOR THE SENATE.

State Is Made Up of the Best Material in the County—Still at Work at Latest Writing.

The democratic county convention met in the court house today at 11:30 o'clock and was called to order by Chairman Nelson, of the county executive committee. It has seldom been our pleasure to view a finer body of representative men.

The call was read and call of townships made and all townships and voting precincts were represented.

On motion the convention endorsed (in place of appointing a committee on platform and resolutions) the democratic state platform unanimously.

The committee on permanent organization recommended Judge John G. Bynum for chairman and Zeb V. Taylor for secretary, and the representatives of the democratic press as assistants.

Judge Bynum was escorted to the chair and made a ringing speech, and declared the convention ready for the transaction of business.

Nominations being declared in order, the following were placed in nomination:

For the senate: Jno. N. Wilson, A. M. Scales.

For the house: Jno. C. Kennett, Jno. C. Bunch, T. E. Whitaker.

For sheriff: J. Henry Gilmer, nominated by acclamation.

For clerk: Jno. J. Nelson, G. A. Rankin, Jno. L. King, William P. McLean.

For Register of Deeds: A. G. Kirkman was nominated by acclamation.

For Treasurer: S. Starr Higgins, G. H. McKinney, S. S. Mitchell, F. W. Doggett, W. C. Boren.

For Coroner: W. C. England, Milton Cunningham, Dr. C. P. Turner, T. A. Lyon, J. W. Sechrest.

For Surveyor: Perry McLean.

For County Commissioners: W. O. Doggett, Frank Forbis, W. H. Ragan, John B. Ogburn, W. C. Boren, W. C. Michael, George W. Long.

After announcing places for the meeting of the delegates during the intermission, the convention adjourned for one hour.

On reconvening balloting was announced to be in order. The name of Hon. A. M. Scales, at his urgent request was withdrawn and Jno. N. Wilson was nominated for the Senate by acclamation.

The name of Mr. Whitaker was withdrawn from the race for the house and Hon. John C. Kennett and John C. Bunch were nominated by acclamation.

Before balloting began for clerk, Mr. John L. King made a good speech and asked that his name be withdrawn. The name of Mr. King was withdrawn by Mr. Brooks, who had placed him in nomination. The first ballot Nelson received 69 and a fraction; Rankin, 58 54-64; McLean, 17-68; King, 7-64.

As we go to press the convention is still in session.

CONVENTION NOTES.

When Judge Bynum started to the chair, Policeman Jordan took him by the arm and escorted him. This raised a great laugh. When quiet was restored a gentleman from Wilmington arose and congratulated the chairman on having a white policeman to escort him, and said that if he lived in Wilmington it would have been a negro.

Prof. D. B. Smith made an excellent speech seconding the nomination of S. Starr Higgins for county treasurer.

Sam Browne was original in his presentation of the name of W. C. Boren for county commissioner.

A SHOOTING AFFRAY.

The Result of an Altercation Over Five Cents Worth of Ice.

A shooting affray, which took place at the express office this afternoon, caused a great deal of excitement.

Henry Wood, one of the drivers for Greensboro Ice and Coal Co., and Sam Luke, proprietor of the Piedmont House, had a misunderstanding near Kivett's store, over five cents worth of ice.

Henry drove on, however, thinking the scrap was ended, but when he stopped at the express office and was standing in the door, Sam came up, armed with a pistol. Without saying a word he began shooting at Henry, who was talking to Mr. Collins. Henry turned and ran through the express office, closely followed by Sam, who shot at him.

He fired three shots, two of which lodged in Henry's side. Henry jumped a fence back of the express office, and all eyes were turned on Sam, who was immediately arrested and placed in jail by Officer Weatherly.

It is not known how seriously Henry is injured. Mr. Collins who saw the shooting did not think he was hit at all but it was reported later that two of the shots took effect.

Returned from Santiago.

Mr. Charlie Abbott, son of Mr. J. F. Abbott, arrived in the city this morning, to spend some time with his parents. Mr. Abbott joined the army as a hospital steward on August 7, 1895, for a term of three years, and when the war with Spain began his regiment was one of the first ordered into active service and was sent to Santiago with General Shafter.

His term of enlistment expired on the seventh of this month and he left Santiago for home, coming by way of New York. He is naturally very tired and worn out after his long journey, and does not like to talk, but says the condition of affairs around Santiago is no better than the newspapers describe it.

Mr. Abbott does not yet know whether he will re-enlist, but has three months in which to decide.

The "gold water" of Dantzic, Prussia, is probably the oldest liqueur in the world, and the estate upon which it is made, known as Der Lachs, is now celebrating its three hundredth anniversary. The books of the makers show a full and complete record of the sales since 1558. Under date of 1813 may be found the entry: "The Russians and Prussians are besieging the town in order to free it from the French. Have sold off all my stock of spirits."

STEAM GAILY UP THE HUDSON

As Far as the Tomb of Gen. Grant. Naval Parade Witnessed by a Vast Assemblage of Patriots.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Aug. 20.—Sampson's fleet arrived off Atlantic highlands at seven-thirty this morning, and will arrive at Tompkinsville at ten and be in readiness to start on the triumphal parade to Grant's tomb. All preparations are complete to make the occasion one of the most memorable of the century.

The city is in holiday attire, and vast crowds are assembling on the water front to witness the spectacle. There are many excursion boats, etc., in the harbor awaiting the arrival of the fleet.

PROCEEDS TO THE CITY.

New York, Aug. 20.—Sampson's squadron reached quarantine shortly after nine o'clock, anchored off Tompkinsville at nine forty-five, and at ten weighed anchor to proceed to the city.

GUNS ANSWER ENTHUSIASM.

New York, Aug. 19.—At 9:15 the squadron was sighted off Fort Wadsworth, the flagship New York leading. As the ships drew abreast of the fort they were saluted by all the guns, but there was no reply from the New York except the dipping of the ensign thrice.

The vessels steamed grimly onward, when suddenly a puff of smoke, followed by a thunderous roar from the New York, told that she was now answering the fort's salute. Gun after gun was fired till the necessary nine gun salute was given.

The squadron could then be seen in the following order: New York, Iowa, Indiana, Brooklyn, Oregon and Massachusetts. As the ships approached Tompkinsville the Texas thundered a salute of seven guns, which was answered by the New York.

The Oregon was the only vessel in the squadron made conspicuous by carrying bunting, with which she was completely covered.

No stop was made at Tompkinsville, where the Texas was anchored, the squadron steaming magnificently away in line for the parade in the river. In passing the battery the reception was most enthusiastic. The Brooklyn saluted. From there they passed up the river amid shores crowded with vast throngs, tooting whistles and shouts of great enthusiasm greeting them.

No such line was ever before witnessed in this city. The firing of salutes was kept up along the river to Grant's tomb, where impressive ceremonies were held. The ships then slowly steamed down the river.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Jersey City, Aug. 20.—Secretary Alger, Secretary Gage and wife, Secretary Wilson, Governor Pingree, of Michigan and Major Hopkins, arrived this morning in a private car to attend the naval celebration. Attorney-General Griggs, Postmaster-General Smith and Secretary Bliss arrived early in the day.

DISPOSING OF PRISONERS.

Washington, Aug. 50.—Orders were issued today for the transfer of twenty Spanish prisoners and six alleged Spanish spies from Fort McPherson to Portsmouth, N. H. Five of the spies will be given their freedom, while one, who is said to have entered the American army for the purpose of acting as a spy for the Spanish government will be sent to his regiment for trial by court-martial.

SPAIN'S COMMISSIONERS.

Madrid, Aug. 20.—The cabinet council has agreed to the Cuban commission suggested by Gen. Blanco, consisting of Gen. Parrado, Capt. Lander and Marquis Montoro. The appointment of the Porto Rico commission has been postponed, although General Macias wired his choice. Members of the Spanish peace commission have not yet been appointed.

LANDING THE SICK.

Montauk, Aug. 20.—The work of unloading the one hundred and fifty-six convalescent soldiers who arrived on the Mobile, began this morning. As fast as landed they were sent to the detention camp. Twenty-six additional fever cases were also landed and placed in the quarantine hospital. The troops were quarantined and begrimed and many needed the assistance of their fellows to leave the ship. It was one of the saddest spectacles of the war.

LETTER FROM ROOSEVELT.

Lieutenant Shipp's Brave Conduct at Santiago.

Through the kindness of Mr. Bartlett Shipp, a brother of the late lamented Lieutenant W. E. Shipp, the Charlotte Observer is enabled to publish the following interesting letter from Colonel Theodore Roosevelt relative to the gallant conduct of Lieut. W. E. Shipp at Santiago, Cuba, last July:

First Regt. U. S. V. Cavalry, In Camp near Santiago de Cuba, July 27th, 1898.

Bartlett Shipp, Esq., Baker City, Oregon:

Dear Sir: Your most gallant brother was with me in the early part of the fight in which he was killed. That morning he and Captain Mills, who had been sleeping within a few feet of me and had lost their mess kits, breakfasted with me, as I was fortunate enough to have plenty of coffee and hardtack and bacon. They then acted as my aides and it was your brother who brought the word to advance with my regiment. I did not see him again. He had been riding to and fro with absolute coolness and fearlessness, paying no more heed to the bullets than if they were hailstones, though men were dropping on every hand. With great regret.

Faithfully yours,
[Signed] Theo. Roosevelt.

AN ODD POSITION.

From the Salisbury Sun we take the following, which is an extract from an open letter of a populist candidate:

"Ex-Sheriff John A. Sims, populist of Cabarrus county, has written an open letter in which he courts the negro vote, but says leave the legislature and general management of the affairs of North Carolina to the Caucasian race.

Among other things he says: "Why from a political standpoint, do I say 'It is to the advantage of the negro to leave the affairs of North Carolina to the whites.' Because as soon as it becomes a fact which will be known and read of all men, that the negro is in authority in North Carolina, then the white men who have come out of the democratic ranks who now constitute the populist party will flee every mother's son of them back to the democratic camp.

"The main issue before us now in North Carolina and not as yet fully agreed upon is, who shall manage the affairs of our own beloved commonwealth?

"Just here allow me to say that I give all honor to that noble band of forty-odd populists, who stood solidly as a stone wall in the last general assembly of North Carolina against some of the vicious legislation that was attempted to be thrust upon the cities of Eastern Carolina (as well as some of the western), but for these the management of the cities referred to would have been turned over to those wholly incompetent, to say the least. I, for one, am opposed to further misleading the negroes of North Carolina."

"As a party, we can no longer afford to fail to give expression on the question of white supremacy, if from no higher motive, we are compelled to do it in self defense. And pray, tell me, why not? The populist party is a white man's party," etc.

Mr. Sims tells the negroes he wants their votes but that they must leave the legislature to the white people. He says when it becomes known that the negro is in authority in North Carolina the populists will go back to the democratic party. And The Telegram would call special attention to the last paragraph quoted above. The populist party "a white man's party," yet it is held from the stump to the highest bidder, be the bidder white or black!

The populist party made overtures to the democratic party and was ignored. Now, a trade has been made with the republican party, more than three-fourths of whom are negroes. Yet it is a white man's party. Allow us to ask, in all candor and sincerity, if the populist is a white man's party, and if, as Mr. Sims says, there is danger of its members returning to the democratic party (which is recognized as the great party of the white people) and if, as he further claims, the government should be in the hands of the white people what purpose can the populists serve as a separate and distinct party?

The answer is plain to every observant man: It simply serves the purpose of its designing and unscrupulous leaders as a thing to be bartered, swapped, sold or traded for selfish ends. That it has already served that purpose no man will deny. It was only this year, however, that the leaders grew so bold as to put it up to the highest bidder.

The only question as to the result is how long the honest white men who compose the rank and file of the populist party will allow themselves to be swapped; how long they will consent to be traded off for negroes. That is simply what it amounts to. The populist leaders and office seekers virtually say to the republican leaders: "We will give you our white farmers and mechanics for your republican negroes," and the unholy and disgusting trade is made.

And, trusting to the self-respect of the aforesaid farmers and mechanics, there'll come a time when the traders will be unable to deliver the goods.

FIVE HUNDRED MASSACRED.

Bloody Work of the Spaniards in the Philippines.

London, Aug. 19.—The Singapore correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The native rebellion in the Philippines has extended to the hemp provinces in South Luzon. Heavy fighting occurred at Paglatuan, Pilar and Pansol, the immediate cause being outrages committed by Spaniards at Paglatuan. The Spanish also burned Pilar and massacred 500 natives. The insurgents are concentrating at Albay with the object of cutting off the retreat of numerous Spaniards in the Camarinas province.

A German cruiser has been carrying dispatches from the captain general of the Ciscayas islands to the district between Cebu and Iligan and the Spanish military depot in Mindanao. The steamer Rosario, flying the German flag, has also been transporting troops thence to Iloilo. After the islands of Masbate had been taken by the insurgents, the latter indignantly refused to allow the German steamer Clara to enter any ports under their control."

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by C. E. Holton.

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Why Allow Your Child To Suffer?

Goldboro, N. C. March 30, '98

Mrs. Joe Person:
Dear Madame, My two small children were completely covered in running sores from impure blood, for which I could find no remedy, until I got a bottle of your Remedy. In a few days they were free of fever, and were well by the time the bottle was empty.
I gave it after meals in sweetened water, and they begged for it. Afterwards my little girl became restless at night, would scream as if in nightmare every little while until after 12 or 1 o'clock. I commenced giving her the Remedy on Thursday night and by Saturday night she was resting quietly. I shall continue to use it for my children.

Yours very truly,

THE BELATED REPORT.

John R. Smith, Discharges, Mr. Leazer's Administration.

To the Honorable Board of Directors of the North Carolina Penitentiary:

In pursuance of chapter 219, section 5, sub-section 8 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1897, requiring an annual report from the superintendent of the State's prison, I respectfully herewith submit my report for the year 1897.

In December, 1897, I had an inventory taken on all the farms. This inventory was handed to the board at your January meeting, and as the reports from the several officers of the institution had not been completed—these reports mainly consisting of statistics—the report was referred by your board, to Mr. Claudius Dockery, to complete.

As a part of my report would necessarily cover three months of the former management, from the first of January, 1897, to the first of April, 1897 (I did not take actual charge until the first of April, 1897, Mr. Leazer remaining in charge and consequently and necessarily expending a great part of both farm products and money on hand.) Mr. Dockery wishing to deal fairly, employed the clerk of the former board to make out so much of the statistics and report as could only be gotten from the books in the penitentiary.

I had an inventory prepared in March, 1897. That inventory differs very greatly from that of Mr. Leazer, for the reason, his report was made on the last of December, 1896, and three months later, when I took charge, there had been a great many changes made. The supplies on hand were nearly all exhausted, and the property on some of the farms and had been transferred to other places, for instance, the Castle Hayne farm is stated in his report as having seventeen hundred and seventy-two dollars and fifty cents worth of live stock on hand. I did not find anything there on the first of April, 1897. The farm was abandoned before I took charge.

I found the central penitentiary in fairly good condition as to the main body. The front part of the building had never been completed, and was partially boarded up with rough boards and very unsightly. I had this completed and greatly improved.
Most of the work was done with convict labor and with very little expense to the state, except for material.

I also constructed the Criminal Insane Department. I found only a small garden near the building. I enlarged the garden and it was of great assistance in feeding the convicts at the central prison. I found most of the machinery badly out of repair, and the engine at the water supply tank in a dangerous condition. It was worthless and a new engine had to be put in to supply the building with the necessary water. The state had in charge five farms, one known as the Halifax farm, near Weldon, one known as the Northampton farm, near Halifax, N. C., two known as Caledonia, Nos. 1 and 2, but virtually one farm. All of these farms are on Roanoke River;

also one farm in Anson county near Wadesboro. On all these farms there were a number of worn out horses and mules. Some of them badly crippled and useless, although they had been valued on the 1st of January, 1897, from $75 to $100 per head. They were condemned as useless by the supervisors in charge at the time I took control. I transferred seventeen of those that could be moved to Castle Hayne and succeeded in making a partial crop with them. After the crops were made, the chairman of the executive committee ordered them sold, and if no one would have them, to kill them. They were sold to Mr.
D. A. Grantham at a nominal price.
There were a number of others so worthless that the supervisors were directed to get rid of them to the best advantage. Three of these mules were traded by one of the supervisors for one horse, one at Anson for a cow, one at Halifax was such a mass of sores that he could not be sold and was given away to avoid having him killed. At the Halifax farm there was a thirty horse power engine and saw mill in almost a worthless condition. I found a large per cent of all the tools and farming implements broken and useless, and badly scattered over the farms. Few wagons even in fairly good condition and most of the machinery in like bad order.
The cotton gins were so out of repair that new gins had to be supplied.

There was scarcely a week's supply of provisions on hand anywhere and on some of the farms, no corn and fodder or other forage.

You gentlemen will remember that the legislature of 1897 had made no appropriation for the penitentiary and with only $1,783.10 in the treasury and $167.72 in the drawer, and as shown by Mr. Leazer's report on pages 22 and 98 for 1896, his figures, we started the 1st of January with $20,061.27 less farm products on hand than the peni-

Fariss Has It
Buiste reliable turnip seed.

tentiary started with the 1st of January, 1896.

In this estimate of farm products on hand the first of January, 1897, he puts the total value of the cotton on hand as a part of the farm products at $77,111.00, when in fact the cotton actually sold for $71,533.16. He deducts $29,000 from the $77,111 the amount drawn on the cotton and thus the penitentiary was charged with having on hand in cotton the first of January, 1897, $48,111. On January 5th Mr. Leazer drew $2,000 more on the cotton leaving cotton on hand and charged to the penitentiary at a valuation of $40,111, when in fact the cotton remaining on hand when sold, brought only $36,533.16. The total amount of the cotton that I sold brought only $20,558.38, Mr. Leazer having drawn out before the first of April, $50,426.68.

I give these figures to show that when I took charge on the first of April, '97, there was only $20,558.38 in cotton on hand and in the treasury $1,783.10 and in the drawer $127.72, total with which to start business on April 1st $22,469.- 16. The amount expended for horses and in paying the bills of Mr. Leazer more than consumed the cotton on hand the cash turned over to me.

With all the farms to be supplied with provisions for man and beast and with cash and every supervisor clam-oring for them, wagons and farming implements, shown by their letters on file, you will find that my expenditures were about the same one month as that of Mr. Leazer in 1896.

The brick, estimated at $5,517.27, as on hand the first of January, 1897, must have been disposed of prior to the first of April, 1897, as there was not near this amount on hand at the latter date.

Under these great disadvantages,
I supplied the farms and furnished them with teams and farming implements and machinery. On each farm we increased the yield over any former year in all farm products, and in cotton we made a greater number of bales and heavier bales than ever before.
There were made during last year 3,116 bales of cotton, an increase of 500 bales over any former year. It should be borne in mind that the price of cotton for the season of 1897 and 1898 was extremely low, and much below the price of 1896 and 1897, while there was no corresponding decrease in the expense of making the crop.

It should also be remembered that I was compelled, for want of ready money, to buy on credit, and pay the additional price always demanded when spot cash is not paid.

The farms have all been improved and are in fine condition for cultivation and I consider the penitentiary in better fix than ever in its history, taking into consideration the present state of the farms and the supplies in farm products, teams, farming implements, etc., on hand the 1st of January 1898.

The prisoners were well fed, well clothed and kindly treated.

There is preaching at the Central Penitentiary and on each of the farms.
The Sunday schools at the Central Penitentiary and on the Anson and Caledonia farms are in fine condition.

It is to be regretted that there is no library on the respective farms, excepting Anson. Unfortunately, there are some educated men who are criminals. These are earnestly desirous of spending their Sundays and spare moments in reading. Just prior to the severance of my connection with the penitentiary, I had, with the assistance of a member of your board, directed a library to be placed on each farm. This was done at the Anson farm, and it was my wish to have put one on each farm.

Hoping you gentlemen will continue your valuable assistance to my succesor, and that you may succeed in making the penitentiary self-sustaining, I remain, very respectfully, John B. Smith.

Plenty of Cash and Guns.

A few days ago the Telegram mentioned that three stores were broken into at Siler City and robbed of cash, clothing, etc. The negro who did the work was seen at the depot, at a station near Siler City, Thursday, and when some citizens tried to arrest him drew his revolver. With this he kept the crowd at bay and backed off to a safe distance, when he turned and ran. He left a valise in the depot and in it was found about forty dollars in cash and several pistols.

In addition to this it is thought the negro had about seventy dollars in bills in his pockets.

He had been in Siler City about three days when the robbery was committed and gave his name as John Henry.
Some of the policemen here think he is John Henry Williams, who was convicted here of highway robbery and sent to the pen for five years and that he is now an escaped convict. "John Henry" will hardly come to Greensboro, for he is too well known here to escape arrest.
